EHRS President’s Welcome Address to the 15th EHRS Meeting in Jerusalem at the Welcome Reception at the Israel Museum.

Chair at the 2011 John Ebling Lecture

Dr. Simon Koch in front of a replica of the Holy Ark of the Covenant at the Mamilla Shopping mall Jerusalem
EHRS President’s Address at the Gala Dinner

Lecture on Cicatricial Alopecia Update
Receiving plaque of recognition for EHRS Presidency 2008-11 from Valerie Randall

Climbing route to Masada at daybreak
The Via Dolorosa (Latin for Way of Grief or Way of Suffering) is the street within the Old City of Jerusalem, held to be the path that Jesus walked, carrying his cross, on the way to his crucifixion. It is marked by nine Stations of the Cross; there have been fourteen stations since the late 15th century, with the remaining five stations being inside the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. The route is a place of Christian pilgrimage.
In the Church of the Holy Sepulchre